

Tonight seems like the perfect
www.musiciansunite.com night to go out and see some LIVE MUSIC.

Here at Lakeside...
Every night is!

Isn't it great to be in a place where there is live entertainment going on every night of the week... I love it!

I love being out playing and going out listening and enjoying as often as possible and as often as possible is 3 or 4 evenings (or afternoons) a week.

I do have my regular gig every week but I enjoy seeing other groups when I can. This week I especially enjoyed Ginetta's Vendetta at The Spotlight Club and today I caught Blue Jay Slim at The Iron Horse. Earlier in the week I got to sit in for a few tunes with the Jamm Band at Adelita's, on Wednesday I caught Jonathan Guzman and Paul Brier at the delightful La Cima del Pilar out on restaurant row and Friday at dinner with our "Munch Bunch" I enjoyed Sweet Harmony... now where will it be this week! Wow... that was a 7-night week out!

Enjoyed every minute of it and itching for another to start!
