The harp festival itself begins on June 5.

Many more harp players from around the country and other nations will be on hand when the Encuentro opens for a full day of music Wednesday, June 5th at the Centro Cultural González Gallo. The outdoor terrace and grassy grounds of the former railway station will be the setting to this off beat music fest. There will be seating available under a large tent and ample space for people bringing their own portable chairs, blankets, picnic gear, snacks and drinks. On subsequent dates, guest musicians extending their visits to Lakeside will likely appear at pop-up events taking place at other local venues.
