

Don Robert Prater 1949 to 2019

Don Robert Prater, 70, died unexpectedly of heart complications November 24 while traveling in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Born and raised in Fort Worth, Texas, Prater was in the first graduating class at Trinity Valley School (1967). He attended Oklahoma University (pledging Phi Delta Theta), the University of Texas in Austin and the University of the Americas in Mexico.

Prater's lifelong passion was music. He was lucky enough to play with many bands, including Fort Worth-based Cahoots, winners of the Most Promising Newcomer Award in the Dallas/ Fort Worth area. They opened for such notables as Willie Nelson, Ray Wiley Hubbard, Waylon Jennings, Crystal Gayle and Larry Gatlin, as well as Texans like Delbert McClinton, Glen Clark and many others.

After Cahoots, Prater started a successful brokerage firm in Southern California, where he remained until he retired to Mexico in 2005.

In search of a better life in retirement, Prater first gave San Miguel de Allende a look but found Ajijic to be a better t for him. Here, music again became his life and he enjoyed an eight-year stint with local group The Lucky Dogs. He also played with Mike and the Suspects before finding a home with the Ol' Country Boys.

Along the way, Prater re- connected on Facebook with a woman he dated 40 years ago. He told her, "I've retired in Mexico, come visit." Then he capped it o with, "Will you marry me?"

Amelie Marchesseau did visit and never left his side for the two years they had together. They married eight months ago, living a fairy tale romantic life in Mexico, filled with love, adventure, friends and travel, along with their two dogs Tilley and Georgie.

As well as his adoring wife, Prater leaves behind son Damian Phelps, whom he adored more than life itself; his sister and best friend Lissa Prater, and her husband Noel Ice, of Fort Worth; stepbrother Steve Prater (Scarlett); half-brother Tony Prater (Susan); step sister Janis Prater and many dear friends who will never forget him.

Prater's 34 years of sobriety, which meant everything to him, should also be noted. He loved the beautiful people that he met in AA along the way.

Prater was also an avid tennis player with the Chapala group.

There will be two celebrations of Prater's life: one in Ajijic this Sunday, December 15th at The Spotlight Club from 3 to 6 PM. The Ol' Country Boys and many other local musicians will be there, along with friends and family. An open bar and snacks will be available. The second celebration will be in Fort Worth in a few months. The exact date and time will be announced on Facebook. Both will be musical extravaganzas in Don Prater style.

Don would be the first to say:

"Always Have Fun"

SPECIAL EVENTS!!

Legion Christmas Show

The Crooners are putting on a Christmas Show at American Legion Post 7 in Chapala on Thursday, December 12th at 1 PM. Along with Christmas carols, there will be a lunch of BBQ chicken, coleslaw, pasta salad and dessert.

Tickets are 200 pesos and will be sold at the Legion until Monday, December 9, 6 p.m. No tickets will be sold at the door.

This event is a fundraiser for two causes: a barbecue smoker for the Legion and funding for the Crooner's mother's charity work with the needy elderly in the area. Those who wish to help with that may optionally bring a sweater or a blanket (or another item) to the Legion that day.

The Mexican National Chili Cookoff needs you!

The 42nd Mexican National Chili Cookoff – set next year for February 7, 8, and 9 – is one of Ajijic's biggest and best parties of the year, with all-day entertainment, a parade, and plenty of food and drink. Most importantly, it is not just a chili contest but raises money to support nine Lakeside charities. The Cookoff is also an important event for more than 100 vendors, businesses, and organizations that set up booths.

The Cookoff board of directors needs new members to collect raffle prizes, design print ads and the program. And it also needs someone to step up to learn the ropes of running the event.

Contestants are also required for the chili, salsa, and margarita contests. As always, volunteers will be needed during the three days of the Cookoff.

If you can take part or help out with this important event, email jacqueandcarol@hotmail.com, or call Cookoff President Jacque Bouchard at 376-766-4350.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Christmas will never be the same. There has been a murder at the Mid-Trimming Manor, otherwise known as Janelle's Garden Restaurant in Ajijic. Who did it? Cast members are (from left), Zane Pumiglia, Chris L'Ecluse, Donna Blackburn, Kelly Morrow, Pam Pettus and Mark Gulko. This murder mystery is presented in an old-style radio show format, and Christmas music, sometimes off-key, is performed by the Mid-Trimming Carol Singers. It may be a good idea to have your vocal cords at the ready. Shows are Wednesday, December 18, and Thursday, December 19, and include a sumptuous Christmas dinner, all for 350 pesos. Tickets are available at Janelle's, Mia's Boutique and Diane Pearl.

Another record folks... 29 pages of fun in this little paradise of ours by beautiful Lake Chapala. Can you believe this started out with a one page e-mail and 178 folks on the contact list... now it's up to 29 pages (mind you there are a lot of Christmas events) mounted on 5 web sites the addresses for which are e-mailed to over 1,800 addresses when I've made sure the newsletter is in fact on the web sites... that's why some weeks there are only 3 or 4 web sites.

I am working on an make over on the newsletter because I am getting to the stage where I will have overhead... so I plan on selling advertising... not to the venues, musicians or the public but to merchants of various goods. The ads will appear on the left 1/3 of each page and the listings (without graphics) will be on the right 2/3's of each page.

I am trying to stay off sites like Mail Chimp and Vertical Response as one has to submit their contact list to them and I am very skeptical whether or not when some of you unsubscribe... the take you off my newsletter but don't remove the address from their main list... your privacy is very important to me.

I look forward to seeing you somewhere... SOON!

Regards,

Francis Dryden
