Gonna be a very different Christmas...
For old Santa this year!

I've kind of lost track... but I believe this is my 16th year playing Santa in Canada and 5th year here in Mexico. I've got 10's of thousands of great memories of bringing a little happiness to kids and grown-ups during that time.

I played in most of the malls in Edmonton, Canada but mostly Southgate Mall that brought thousands to my huge stand for photos with Santa. On days off (not many from about mid-November until Christmas Eve), I visited homes, hospitals, schools and even did a big sales meeting for the Apple Store for their staff... sort of a pump for the last week of Christmas sales. I went to many bars (no, Santa does not drink) and evening parties where people gathered at Christmas time... a truly thrilling and rewarding privilege I got and enjoyed virtually every minute of it for those years.

I start growing my beard on August 9th yearly as my wife's birthday is August 8th and it's the last she sees of me until I get the whole works taken off as soon after Christmas as possible... I really don't like beards!... shhhhh... that's a secret!

Even with the Covid thing I still started the beard and yesterday (I wait until after Thanksgiving) i published my Kris Kringle Facebook page again but all I have going so far is this Thursday and Friday doing a fundraiser for Bone Voyage for the great job they do finding loving homes for lost, abandoned and stray puppies... we're going to have photos with puppies and Santa as per the poster above... and we're going to raise a bunch of money I am sure... positive in fact!

“Always Have Fun!”

Upcoming Events

Hola Orchestra Supporters

We hope you are all well despite the pandemic restrictions.

As you are aware the orchestra has been unable to rehearse since the pandemic crisis began back in March.

Life without live music is a hard thing to live with for most of us so we have formed a 12 piece chamber ensemble from orchestra members with a view to mounting small, socially distanced performances.

We have found a venue that is perfect for this kind of concert, one that is open on two sides thereby creating an excellent airflow for audience and musicians alike. The venue has a license from the municipality to present small artistic productions at no more than 35% capacity.

We experimented with this a month ago giving two concerts where a small audience was temperature checked, given hand gel and with everyone wearing a mask during the performance. Each seat was 1.5 meters apart in each direction. It was a success from all angles and we are now delighted to inform you that we will be mounting a Christmas concert next month where we can all enjoy some seasonal cheer. Let's face it we all deserve some of this!

The concert dates are:

Friday December 11 at 3pm
Saturday December 12 at 3pm

The venue is the Unitarian Fellowship/Bare Stage facility at 261 Hidalgo (which is the Carretera mountainside) Riberas.

Seating is limited to 35 people only per performance and reservations must be made in advance via email. There is no admission charge and no physical tickets will be issued. If you would like to reserve seats please send an email to lccotickets@gmail.com or mjrmusic01@gmail.com. Please state which day you would like and how many seats you would like to reserve. Because seating is limited it will be first come first served. All successful reservations will receive a confirmation email.

The concerts will feature seasonal music/readings and our guest singer will be the very talented Laura Medina. In addition we will celebrate the 250th birthday of Beethoven with a special arrangement of his Fidelio Overture. (Beethoven's birthday falls on December 17 2020).

The orchestra looks forward to sharing the joy of live music and a celebration of the season with the community.

Best regards
Michael Reason
