You get old because you stop playing music.

PLAY MUSIC.
STAY YOUNG FOREVER.

This is mostly true...
I'll explain!!!

I went to the great jam session at La Bodega this afternoon and it was another great time.

I developed neuropathy about 35 years ago or about half way through my drumming “career” (I did other things in the day time) and with the upset of covid and advansing age... I had to “hang ‘em up” about two years ago. I heard a great little band from the Prep school over in Chapala and with a friend that went there as a kid... donated them my kit.

The guys at the jam (and at some of the clubs) got me up but I can only do a few numbers these days... I did a few more than a couple today and it felt good... thanks Rod and the guys at the jam.

So although I will never play a whole night anymore... I still get to play ‘cause I don’t want to get too old to do it anymore!

AUDIENCE REVIEWS

What a riveting play with so many aspects.

It's amazing that we have such talent at a community theatre. All the actors are so professional and Dave McIntosh excels in the main role.

I know people have said this before about other productions, but this really is the best production I've seen at LLT.

We need experienced sewists!

Over 100 period costumes are needed for the show!

If you've never heard the term "sewist", here's the definition:

A sewist is a gender-neutral term for a person who sews, combining "sew" and "artist," to describe someone who creates sewn items with creativity and purpose, moving away from the ambiguous "sewer" (waste pipe) or gendered "seamstress/seamster". It's used for creators of apparel, emphasizing skill and personal expression.
