

Take a moment to give a shout
out to those musicians who you www.musiciansunite.com
aren't able to play with anymore
and really miss jamming and performing with!!

There are so, so many!

I played pretty actively for about 68 years... but way too many are no longer around. Many I played with in gigs and many in jams... a lot of great guys and gals.

Down here when I first came down in 2010 where super to share the stage with... Paul Brier, Jay Shuffle, Jimmy Barto I had the pleasure of jamming and playing with but alas they have gone to the big jam "up above"... others here in the early years included Beau Wiseman, Ray Bushbaum also gone to same jam above.

We just lost another great musician a couple of weeks back... Doug Friend who was a great drummer... a terrible accident while building his new home... taken way too young and left his lovely wife Nancy way too soon... May he rest in peace.

"WRITE ME A WOMAN WHO FIGHTS FOR WHAT SHE WANTS."

Emilia Bassano, believed to be "Dark Lady" in Shakespeare's sonnets, was a talented musician and England's first female published poet. She was also multilingual, multiracial and a force to be reckoned with. In this witty and intimate production, Shakespeare and Bassano collide as they wrestle with artistic collaboration, ambition, envy, and love—an entanglement that will profoundly shape both their lives and their work.
