And here at Lakeside... we are blessed to have LOTS!

I have had the privilege to play music all over North America and have had the privilege also to play in many great bands and with many, many fine players and singers... I am thankful for that and always will be.

But I can honestly say I have never been in a place like this with so many great players and so many great places to play in... absolutely amazing.

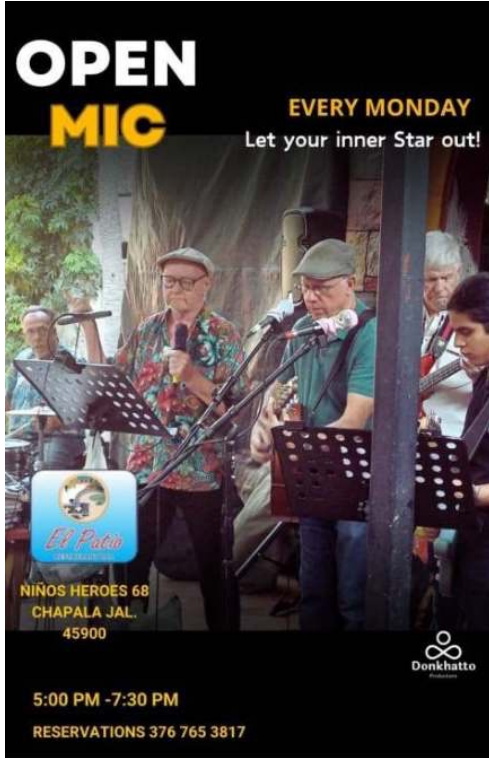

And as I have always said... "Without a great audience there is no show!"... there are excellent and very faithful audiences here and I thank them all for being so great!
